The Aha Moment

Theory Of The Witness

An open book with a dark cover and gold-leafed pages is shown from a top-down perspective. The pages are spread wide, revealing a stylized illustration. The illustration features a large, light blue mountain peak with a white, jagged snow-capped summit. Several white, fluffy clouds are scattered around the mountain, some appearing to float in the sky and others resting on the slopes. The background of the illustration is a deep blue. The text 'Storytelling Through Cross' is overlaid on the left side of the image in a white, serif font.
